I INTERNATIONAL SCIENTIFIC CONGRESS OF INNOVATION, SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY ALIVE AMAZON (I CTAV 2021)

CICTAV represents a multidisciplinary meeting of researchers and professionals dedicated to the study and research in different areas of science and technology. Its main purpose is to promote scientific and professional cooperation in these areas.

In its first edition, CICTAV was expected to gather a significant number of attendees and serve as a platform for researchers and practitioners to discuss growing interest and development in the fields of information technology, environment, tourism, agronomy, and zootechnics.

The "I International Congress of Innovation, Science and Technology Amazon Viva (CICTAV)" aimed to address and disseminate research and innovative projects that will strengthen students' learning and encourage teachers' participation to start a new line of action in the academic and research field. The Congress included keynote lectures by researchers from different higher education institutions of Cuba, Colombia, and Ecuador.

This collection contains documents of the I International Congress of Innovation, Science and Technology Amazon Viva CICTAV 2022 which was held in the city of Coca on April 25, 26 and 27, 2022. This event was organized by the Escuela Superior Politécnica de Chimborazo - Sede Orellana, Instituto Superior Universitario Oriente, Universidad Estatal Amazónica, Instituto Superior Intercultural Bilingüe Martha Bucaram de Roldós and Instituto Superior Tecnológico General Eloy Alfaro.
