This new publication will increase the reputation of ESPOCH within the International Scientific Community, supporting and showcasing scholarly outputs.

By making ground-breaking new research available as Open Access Will make it accessible to teachers as well as researchers, the POLITÉCNICA SUPERIOR SCHOOL OF CHIMBORAZO (ESPOCH), contributing to the training of future researchers and professionals as well as supporting the development of new solutions for health, technological, and environmental problems. Scientific research not only supports educational policy and evolution, it is part of it.
